

Application

Dome Loaded Regulators as Control Valves

With the selection of the sensing element such as a pressure transducer, pH meter, level control or other, coupled with a controller and I/P (extended range, if necessary) the functionality of a control valve is accomplished.

